About us

We are delighted to welcome you to David Game Higher Education

DGHE is the Higher Education division of David Game College. David Game College (DGC) was founded in 1974 and has consistently delivered the best quality teaching to ensure student success. Nearly half a century after its foundation, the David Game College Group has grown into one of the UK's leading independent providers of education, offering courses within the UK and abroad. Registered with the Office for Students (OfS), DGC has been awarded the QAA Quality Mark for meeting or exceeding UK expectations for quality and standards.

David Game Higher Education (DGHE) offers a vibrant, practical and inclusive learning environment that aims to support students to thrive, reach their full potential and advance their careers. Since DGHE's foundation in 2013, the College has evolved to deliver high-quality, empowering education. We welcome students from all backgrounds and employ lecturers who offer both industry experience and exceptional teaching talent.

At DGHE, we offer a range of Bachelor's degrees - Levels 4, 5 & 6 - Foundation courses, Top-Ups and BTEC Higher National Certificates (HNCs) and Diplomas (HNDs) - Levels 4 & 5 - specialising in Business Management, Health & Social Care, Public Services, Criminology & Criminal Justice, Art & Design, and Visual Communication.

The college is proud to be a career-building steppingstone to all our students that strive for personal and professional success. Students and alumni are given access to personalised Careers Services; our career counsellor is available to support current and graduated students in their job search or to discuss any other career-related matters.

The college also takes seriously our responsibility to provide mental health services and pastoral care to students and staff. We seek to nurture a supportive learning environment, through small classes and one-to-one tutelage. DGHE also has our own Wellbeing department, in which a professional counsellor is always available to assist our community in coping with the stresses of school and modern life. In addition, we provide further access and participation support to those with learning difficulties through financial assistance and study aids. We are always organising activities, online and offline, to ensure every member of our community receives the care we need. Those who choose to study at DGHE will find a welcome and enriching environment to do their best.

We look forward in welcoming you to DGHE.

Supporting your studies

At David Game College, students are at the heart of everything we do. The College student services and welfare teams are always available for you. In or out of the classroom we will do all we can to support you throughout your time with us.

Career Advice

Our dedicated careers and employability advisor is available to support all our students and our alumni in developing the skills you need to market yourself to potential employers, and to provide you guidance in identifying a suitable career plan. This service can also help you to prepare for interviews and selection tests.

Health and Wellbeing

The College takes pride in the quality of the teaching and pastoral care provided to its students. DGHE has a support system in place to give you the help and guidance you may require during any period of hardship, stress or anxiety. Appointments with a trained welfare officer can be arranged quickly and conveniently.

Disability Support

DGHE recognise the importance to maintain a truly inclusive and caring learning environment for all students and welcomes applications from people with disabilities. If you have a disability or a long-term health condition, we will do everything we can to make sure you have equal opportunities to learn and take part in all aspects of student life. Any information provided will be kept strictly confidential and will only be used to support you with your studies.

Pre-sessional English Course

DGHE Pre-sessional English Course is designed to improve your academic English to be ready for your studies. It is intended for students who are planning to study for an HND or degree BA (Hons) at DGHE but do not meet the English language requirement of their conditional offer. Taking a Pre-Sessional English course will not only help you improve your language skills, but it will also help you with your studies and research, and give you more confidence as you prepare to start your course.

Drop-in Sessions

Drop-in sessions are a space, timetabled on a termly basis, dedicated to you for one-to-one support. These are arranged and supported by your course or module leader.

Assessment Workshop

An assessment workshop is a one-hour slot with your lecturer that is dedicated to help you clarify questions regarding your course assignments and provide a space for informal feedback and peer discussion.

Study Skills Support

Classroom-based and as an additional online module, study skills are provided by the College to enhance each student's learning opportunities. This module contributes to the development of academic writing and research skills.

Library

Our growing library also accommodates support sessions for those who wish to consolidate their learning further. You will be able to ask quick questions and arrange one-to-one appointments for in-depth assistance of academic research and referencing skills with our esteemed Librarian.

“ The HND Public Services is a unique course that has changed my life and my perception. I have learned so much from my lecturers and I have received so much support and guidance. For me, the most interesting part is the modules that have allowed me to understand in-depth subjects such as Psychology of Behaviour, Punishment and Rehabilitation. I can wait to start my second year and progress to the Top-up. ”

Study Options

This HND programme is offered as a full-time study programme for two years as standard. This course is taught at our London campus with a flexible timetable structure. Whether you have work commitments or need to support a family while studying, our flexible learning options; daytime or evenings and Saturdays are available to accommodate your work and personal commitments.

Teaching & Learning

Our Academic team have extensive industry and academic experience that enhances the delivery of the course allowing for practical application in today's demands of employers in the public sector. You will gain an in-depth understanding of these essential public services and the skills and knowledge required to work in your chosen area – whether on the front line or in a vital supporting role.

Assessments Methods

To gain the HND each module must be successfully completed. Assessment is a combination of coursework, assignments, projects, or an examination. All assessments are externally verified by Pearson. Students will be expected to commit at least 150 notional hours towards completing the learning outcomes per unit. This usually consists of a combination of around 60% direct teaching time and around 40% independent study time (e.g. preparations for research and assessments, background reading, etc.).

Career Prospects

On successful completion of this 2 year course, students will have strong career prospects in diverse areas of the Public Sector such as; Police officer; Major crime investigator, Criminal Intelligence analyst, Crime analyst and other careers in the public sector.

On successful completion of the HND, there is an opportunity to complete a third year 'top-up' with us studying a level 6 BSc (Hons) Criminology & Criminal Justice programme which is delivered in partnership with the University of Gloucestershire.
