JOB DESCRIPTION

HOURLY PAID LECTURER – SOCIAL SCIENCES (Criminology/Criminal Justice)

TITLE: LECTURER

REPORTS TO: PROGRAMME MANAGER

SUMMARY:

The School of Social Sciences and Health at DGHE is looking to recruit a number of freelance hourly paid lecturers in Social Sciences (Criminology/Criminal Justice and related areas). The successful candidates will be expected to contribute to teaching at undergraduate levels. The main duties for the post holders will focus on carrying out teaching and some teaching-related duties, such as preparing course content, including e-learning and blended learning, designing, and assessing exams and assessments, and providing quality feedback to students. The current programmes we run will involve teaching during weekdays and/or evenings and/or Saturdays and therefore flexibility in terms of teaching allocation is desirable.

MAIN DUTIES:

Teaching:

- To undertake the full range of teaching and other related duties, with due regard to quality assurance and professional conduct, and to provide high quality learning and teaching.
- To update the VLE with teaching material, scheme of work/syllabus, assessment and reading material.
- To design and develop innovative, inclusive and inspiring learning materials and assessments including blended learning, flip classroom and e-learning.
- To contribute to the formative and summative assessment process for students including the setting, marking and internal verification/moderation of work, individually and collectively as part of a team in accordance with established procedures, and within the required deadlines.
- To participate in relevant committees and boards, and team meetings.
- To carry out academic administrative work relevant to the department, such as completion of module reports, or contribution to departmental reports, invigilation of exams, completion and submission of attendance registers, in a timely and complete manner.
